State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The registrant was not, without unreasonable effort or expense, able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2019 by the applicable due date due to it continuing to be a development-stage company with limited internal compliance, financial reporting and accounting functions. Additionally, the Company is still preparing analyses and providing information to its auditors in connection with the preparation of its quarterly financial statements. The registrant will file the Form 10-Q within the 5-day extension period provided by Rule 12b-25.

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Until the completion by Fingermotion, Inc. (the “Company”) of its quarter-end closing and review procedures for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2019, the Company is unable to provide a reasonable estimate of its detailed results of operations for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2019. However, subject to the completion of the Company’s quarterly financial statements for inclusion in the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and the review thereof by the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm, the Company expects the results of its operations for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2019 to reflect significant changes in results of operations from the results of its operations for the Company’s quarterly period ended November 30, 2018. The Company is providing the following preliminary estimated results for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2019:

The Company expects to report that revenues for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2019 increased to $2,725,339, compared to $524,425 for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2018. The Company expects to report that cost of revenue for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2019 increased to $2,283,024 compared to $435,444 for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2018. The Company expects to report that its operating expenses for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2019 increased to $437,013 compared to $130,819 for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2018.

The foregoing statements are based on the Company’s current expectations as of the date of this filing and are preliminary and may change. As noted above, the Company has not completed its quarter-end closing and review procedures for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2019 and there can be no assurance that final results for the quarter-end will not differ from the preliminary estimated results included herein. In addition, these preliminary estimated results should not be viewed as a substitute for full interim financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the U.S. (“GAAP”) that have been reviewed by the Company’s auditors.
