Notes to the Condensed Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

Note 1 – Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Finger Motion, Inc. fka Property Management Corporation of America (the “Company”) was incorporated on January 23, 2014 under the laws of the State of Delaware.

On April 14, 2017, two shareholders of the Company agreed to sell an aggregate of 2,250,000 shares of the Company’s common stock, representing 87.3% of total outstanding shares at the time, to Mr. Wong H’Sien Loong, an unrelated third party, and the Company experienced a change in control. In conjunction with the change in control, Mr. Wong H’Sien Loong was elected to be the Company’s CEO and CFO, and the Company’s former acting CEO and CFO resigned.

On April 28, 2017, the Company entered into a software license agreement with Finger Motion Company Limited, a Hong Kong corporation, (“Finger Motion”) that provides the Company the worldwide license to market and sell several role-playing video games.

On May 15, 2017, the Company received the written consent in lieu of a meeting of the holders of a majority of the total voting power of all issued and outstanding voting capital of the Company that authorized amending the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation to (i) change the name of the Company to FingerMotion Corporation and (ii) effect a 1-for-4 reverse common stock split and (iii) increase the Company’s authorized common stock from 18,000,000 to 200,000,000 shares, par value $0.0001. All common stock share and per-share amounts for all periods presented in these financial statements have been adjusted retroactively to reflect the reverse stock split.

The Company’s previous majority shareholders had offered management and consulting services to residential and commercial real estate property owners. Commensurate with the shareholder transactions in April 2017, the business focus of the Company is to design and develop mobile video games and content.

Basis of Presentation of Unaudited Condensed Financial Information

The unaudited condensed financial statements of the Company for the three months ended May 31, 2017 and 2016 have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information and pursuant to the requirements for reporting on Form 10-Q and Regulation S-K. Accordingly, they do not include all the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. However, such information reflects all adjustments (consisting solely of normal recurring adjustments), which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for the fair presentation of the financial position and the results of operations. Results shown for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be obtained for a full fiscal year. The balance sheet information as of February 28, 2017 was derived from the audited financial statements included in the Company's financial statements as of and for the year ended February 28, 2017 included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on June 14, 2017. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with that report.

Going concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. As reflected in the accompanying financial statements, during the three months ended May 31, 2017, the Company incurred a loss from operations of $2,194, and used cash in operations of $22,374. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that financial statements are issued. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

During the three months ended May 31, 2017, the Company received capital contribution of $48,559 from Mr. Wong H'Sien Loong, its controlling shareholder.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates include accounting for potential liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Basic and diluted loss per share

Basic loss per share is computed by dividing net loss applicable to common stockholders by the weighted average number of outstanding common shares during the period. Diluted loss per share is computed by dividing the net loss applicable to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding plus the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if all dilutive potential common shares had been issued. For the three months ended May 31, 2017 and 2016, the basic and diluted shares outstanding were the same, as there were no potentially dilutive shares outstanding.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Under current accounting guidance, fair value is defined as the price at which an asset could be exchanged or a liability transferred in a transaction between knowledgeable, willing parties in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability. Where available, fair value is based on observable market prices or parameters or derived from such prices or parameters. Where observable prices or parameters are not available, valuation models are applied. A fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value into three broad levels as follows:

Level 1 – Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 – Inputs, other than the quoted prices in active markets, are observable either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 – Unobservable inputs based on the Company's assumptions.

The Company is required to use observable market data if such data is available without undue cost and effort. As of May 31, 2017, the amounts reported for cash approximated fair value because of their short-term maturities.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). ASU 2014-09 is a comprehensive revenue recognition standard that will supersede nearly all existing revenue recognition guidance under current U.S. GAAP and replace it with a principle based approach for determining revenue recognition. Under ASU 2014-09, revenue is recognized when a customer obtains control of promised goods or services and is recognized in an amount that reflects the consideration which the entity expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. In addition, the standard requires disclosure of the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from contracts with customers. The FASB has recently issued ASU 2016-08, ASU 2016-10, ASU 2016-11, ASU 2016-12, ASU 2016-20, and ASU 2017-05, all of which clarify certain implementation guidance within ASU 2014-09. ASU 2014-09 is effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017. Early adoption is permitted only in annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016, including interim periods therein. The standard can be adopted either retrospectively to each prior reporting period presented (full retrospective method), or retrospectively with the cumulative effect of initially applying the guidance recognized at the date of initial application (the cumulative catch-up transition method). The Company is currently in the process of analyzing the information necessary to determine the impact of adopting this new guidance on its financial position, results of operations, and cash flows. The Company will adopt the provisions of this statement in the first quarter of fiscal 2018, using the modified retrospective approach.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This update will require the recognition of a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability, initially measured at the present value of the lease payments, for all leases with terms longer than 12 months. For operating leases, the asset and liability will be expensed over the lease term on a straight-line basis, with all cash flows included in the operating section of the statement of cash flows. For finance leases, interest on the lease liability will be recognized separately from the amortization of the right-of-use asset in the statement of comprehensive income and the repayment of the principal portion of the lease liability will be classified as a financing activity while the interest component will be included in the operating section of the statement of cash flows. ASU 2016-02 is effective for annual and interim reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018. Early adoption is permitted. Upon adoption, leases will be recognized and measured at the beginning of the earliest period presented using a modified retrospective approach. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of ASU 2016-02 on its financial statements and related disclosures.

Other recent accounting pronouncements issued by the FASB, including its Emerging Issues Task Force, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and the Securities and Exchange Commission did not or are not believed by management to have a material impact on the Company's present or future financial statements.

Note 2 – Related Party Transactions

During the three months ended May 31, 2016, one hundred percent (100%) of the Company's revenue came from the management of two properties that were owned in part by our former Chairman and the former acting Chief Executive Officer, President and Chief Financial Officer. During the three months ended May 31, 2017, the Company no longer has this revenue stream.

At February 28, 2017, the outstanding amount due an entity controlled by our former Chairman was $27,500 plus accrued interest at February 28, 2017 of $1,057. On April 14, 2017, the Company repaid an total of $28,557, including interest of $1,057 in settlement of outstanding the note and accrued interest.

The Company sublet an office space from an entity controlled by our former Chairman. For the three months ended May 31, 2017 and 2016, rent expense related to this office space was $350 and $1,050, respectively. The lease was terminated in May, 2017.

Note 3 – Subsequent Events

Results of Operations

We recorded $3,474 in revenue from operations for the three month period ended May 31, 2016 compared to $0 for the three month period ended May 31, 2017. Our revenue in 2016 was derived from management service agreements, then with two clients, both of which were affiliated with our former directors and officer.

The Company expects to generate revenue and incur operating expenses in connection with the operations of FMCL.

Cost of revenue

We recorded $1,563 in cost of revenue for the three month period ended May 31, 2016

Operating expenses

We recorded $8,039 in operating expenses for the three month period ended May 31, 2016 compared to $2,194 for the three month period ended May 31, 2017. Our operating expenses in 2016 consisted primarily of professional fees and administrative expenses. We review new accounting standards as issued. Although some of these accounting standards issued or effective after the end of our previous fiscal year may be applicable to us, we have not identified any standards that we believe merit further discussion. We believe that none of the new standards will have a significant impact on our financial position, operations or cash flows.

Item 3 - Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

In future periods, the Company may become subject to certain market risks, including changes in interest rates and currency exchange rates. At the present time, the Company has no identified exposure and does not undertake any specific actions to limit exposures, if any.

Disclosure Controls and Procedures. Our management, under the supervision and with the participation of our Chief Executive and Financial Officer (Certifying Officer), has evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as defined in Rules 13a-15 promulgated under the Exchange Act as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report. Disclosure controls and procedures are controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed or submitted under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms and include controls and procedures designed to ensure that information we are required to disclose in such reports is accumulated and communicated to management, including our Certifying Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. Based upon that evaluation, our Certifying Officer concluded that as of such date, our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective to ensure that the information required to be disclosed by us in our reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified by the SEC due to a weakness in our controls more fully disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K. However, our Certifying Officer believes that the financial statements included in this report fairly present, in all material respects, our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows for the respective periods presented.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting.
